

LADIES NEWSLETTER
APRIL 2019

Golf this month started off with a 9 hole Texas Scramble - the winning team was Rose, Sammy, Hazel and Caroline - congratulations ladies
Only two teams finished their round - the rest of us wimps came in when the hailstones started

We had the Captain vs Vice Captain competition on the 9th April
The Vice Captains team won and I presented Rose with the magnificent trophy!
Thanks very much to everyone who played it was a good turnout
Thanks also to Sue Gray, Marilyn and Mary for the baking - much appreciated by everyone

The first 18 hole competition of the season was the Ladies Club Trophy (1) - Linda Ovens was the winner - well done Linda

The Ladies Holmes Cup (1) was won by Hazel Thompson - well played Hazel

Just a reminder that if you want to have supper after the competition please remember to tick on the sheet.

The 9 hole Stableford competition started this week. The dates for these comps are in the fixture list - just turn up and play. This is a counting competition so handy for anyone who is looking to put cards in and can't play on Tuesdays. No ladies played this week - if you are wanting to play in future it would be best to find out if any other ladies are playing. It's a mixed event - you can play with a man if you want to!! Tee times from 4:30 - 6pm

The entry sheet is up in the changing room for the Marjoribanks Mixed Open on Sunday 12th May - 1pm shotgun start

Tuesday 14th May is the Ladies Coronation Foursomes competition-find yourself a partner - entry sheet is in the folder

Also the Ladies Open Texas Scramble (Saturday 18th May) entry sheet is up. Teams of 3

The match against Kelso Ladies at St Boswells is on Wednesday 29th May again the entry sheet is up in the changing room - 1230pm tee time followed by afternoon tea

Many thanks to Sue Gray, Linda Ovens, Mary Ferguson, Fiona Melrose and Marilyn Taylor for their help and baking for the BLGA Jenny Cleghorn competition at St Boswells earlier this month

Sue Gray has drawn the Muriel Ovens competition-the draw is on the notice board

There was a Ladies Committee Meeting this month - the Suggestion Book didn't have any entries in so the committee can only assume that you are all happy bunnies!

Please let us know if you have anything you want us to discuss

That's it for now Ladies - thanks for reading. I hope you find the newsletter helpful
